

POSITION: Assistant Professor of Psychology
Tenure Track

JOB DESCRIPTION: Duties will include teaching graduate and undergraduate courses in psychology, research, supervising master's theses, academic advising, development of courses, and other common university duties.

QUALIFICATIONS: Applicants must have an earned doctorate and research experience in Clinical, Counseling, or other applied area of Psychology with training/expertise in Testing, Therapy, and Psychopathology. Applicants should be licensed Psychologists or license-eligible. Applicants should demonstrate strong capabilities and commitment to research and teaching at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

UNIVERSITY: UL Lafayette is a state-supported university with approximately 16,300 undergraduate and graduate students, located in Lafayette, Louisiana. It currently offers 78 bachelor's, 27 master's, and 9 doctoral degree programs with approximately 600 faculty members.

SALARY RANGE: Competitive; dependent on experience and qualifications.

STARTING DATE: August 18, 2010, or until filled.

APPLICATIONS: Please send a letter of application, vita, transcript of academic credit, 3 letters of recommendation, and supporting materials (such as copied of sample publications/preprints/grant applications) by January 19, 2010 to:

Robert M. McFatter, Ph.D.
Chairman, Faculty Search Committee
Department of Psychology
P.O. Box 43131
University of Louisiana
Lafayette, LA 70504-3131

EEO: LA 1-09